EXPERTISE

Lucila Guerrero works on general Commercial Law, and specializes on aeronautical and insurance matters.

In aeronautical matters, she advises local and international airlines, in regulatory and contractual matters, designs and implements legal defenses against passenger claims or administrative proceedings initiated by State agencies, such as the National Civil Aviation Administration or the National Directorate of Migration.

Regarding insurance matters, Lucila provides advice to insurance companies, brokers and underwriting agents on commercial and regulatory aspects of their insurance business. Additionally, she advises other industries on regulatory matters, contracts with insurance companies, loss analysis and claims, and insurance-related due diligence processes.

EDUCATION

She graduated, with honors, as a lawyer at the Argentine Catholic University in 2008. In 2007, she received the Academic Excellence Award awarded by the Buenos Aires City Bar Association.

Additionally, she attended the Postgraduate Interdisciplinary Program on Aeronautical Law at the Argentine Catholic University (2016) and other aeronautical and insurance seminars:
Postgraduate course in Insurance - Law School (UBA) (August 2022 to November 2022);
IX Río de la Plata Colloquium on Aviation and Space Law (August 2015; Law School, University of Buenos Aires);
Seminar on Aspects of Air Transport Policy (November 2012; Law School, University of Buenos Aires);
Seminar on Air Transport Liability (October 2010; Instituto Nacional de Derecho Aeronáutico y Espacial); and Seminar on Aeronautical and Commercial Aviation Infractions (June 2009; Instituto Nacional de Derecho Aeronáutico y Espacial).
