Veiga, Vanina

vv@pagbam.com
+54 11 4114-3036
Spanish - English - French

EXPERTISE

Vanina Veiga's practice is primarily focused on Corporate Law, advising several national and foreign companies in various corporate matters, including investment vehicles, corporate management, directors' duties and responsibilities, audits, documents, policies and corporate contracts, design and implementation of a suitable corporate form for each business and corporate disputes. Mrs. Veiga is an expert on mergers and other corporate changes. She has been active in acquisitions and trade agreements negotiations.

EDUCATION

Mrs. Veiga was admitted to practice in Buenos Aires in 1998. She received an LLM in Law and Economics from Torcuato Di Tella University Law School in 2006 and attended as visiting scholar the LLM of the Southwestern University Law School in 2005. She received her law degree from the Argentine Catholic University Law School in 1998 and completed several post-graduate corporate courses at that school and both at the University of Buenos Aires and Austral University.

ACADEMIC & PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Between 2002 and 2008, Vanina Veiga was a lawyer at Negri & Teijeiro Abogados, where was appointed partner in 2006. Previously she was the legal manager of Embotelladora del Atlántico S.A. (a Coca-Cola bottler).

Mrs. Veiga has been a professor at the Argentine Catholic University, Torcuato Di Tella University and Palermo University.

ADMISSIONS & AFFILIATIONS

She is admitted to practice in Argentina since 1998.

PRACTICES

- Corporate Law
- Corporate Governance & Compliance